Dear Sally,

Thank you for bringing your miniature horses out to Marbridge last weekend. Our residents felt very special that you all would take time out of your busy schedules to visit them. At our Villa Nursing Home, residents are continuing to talk about your lovable minis.

The day before your visit, I helped post flyers around campus informing every one of the Minis and Friends activity. I cannot tell you how many squeals I heard as people read the signs. Many of them remembered you all from previous years, and for others, yours were the first miniature horses they would ever see.

Our residents were enthused with the idea that the horses came from all over the area. All of the horses were sweet and calm, and encouraged such therapeutic interaction. We would love to have you back anytime.

Warmest regards,

Katherine Skanse
